

Grant Madsen

Department of History
Brigham Young University
2145 JFSB
Provo, UT 84606
gmdsen@byu.edu

Education

University of Chicago, 2000-2011
Ph.D. in American History
Area Concentrations: America in the World, Economic, Intellectual, and Political History

University of Virginia 1993-1995
M.A. in English Literature
Certificate in Modern Studies

Brigham Young University 1988-1992
B.A. in English Literature
Minor in German

Appointment

Assistant Professor, Brigham Young University (August 2013-present)

Publications

Lessons of Victory: How the U.S. Military Rebuilt the Global Economy after World War II, (manuscript currently under consideration at the University of Pennsylvania Press).

“Review of Lori Clune, Executing the Rosenbergs,” Passport: The Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Review, (January, 2017).

“Eisenhower, Dwight D.,” Dictionary of American History, Supplement: America in the World, 1776 to the Present, Cengage (forthcoming, February 2016)

“Policy History and Diplomatic History: Together at Last?” Passport: The Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Review, Vol. 45 No. 3 (January, 2015).

“Africa, the Informal Economy, and the Hermeneutic Circle,” (with Paul Godfrey and Jeff Bednar), Research Methodology in Strategy and Management, Vol. 10, Emerald Group Publishing, (November, 2014).

“The International Origins of Dwight D. Eisenhower’s Political Economy,” Journal of Policy History, Vol. 24 No. 4 (Fall 2012).

“Becoming a State-in-the-World: Lessons Learned from the American Occupation of Germany,” Studies in American Political Development, Vol. 26 No. 2 (October 2012).

Conference Papers

“The Revenge of Dis-Embedded Liberalism,” Policy History Conference 2016 (Nashville, TN)

“Policy History and Diplomatic History: Together at Last?” 2014 Policy History Conference (Columbus, OH)

“American Occupations as Policy Incubators: The Origins of a Republican Party, Global Political Economy” 2013 Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations (Arlington, VA)

“Growth without Inflation: Eisenhower’s Attempt to Overwhelm Keynesianism by his Learning from Abroad” 2012 Policy History Conference (Richmond, VA)

Teaching Experience

AMERICAN HERITAGE. Brigham Young University.

US HISTORY SINCE 1877. Brigham Young University.

U.S. HISTORY FROM 1945 TO 2000. Brigham Young University.

20TH CENT AMERICAN ECON POLICY. University of Chicago and Brigham Young University

AMERICA IN WORLD CIVILIZATION. University of Chicago.

Awards and Honors

OUTSTANDING TEACHER AWARD, Student Selection, Department of History, Brigham Young University (2014-2015)

FHSS Research Grant, Brigham Young University (2013-14)

Michael and Ling Markovitz Dissertation Fellowship (2010)

Von Holst Prize Lectureship (2008-09)

Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library Travel Grant (2008)

Dissertation Teaching and Research Fellowship (2007)

Von Holst Prize Lectureship (declined) (2007)

College Lecturer (2005, 2006, 2007)

Bessie Pierce Prize Preceptor (2004, 2005, 2006)

Mellon Achievement Award (2001-2004)

Mann Travel Grant (2008)

Freehling Research Travel Award (May 2005, October 2006)

Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society

Golden Key National Honor Society

Work Experience

RESIDENT HEAD, Maclean Hall, University of Chicago Undergraduate Student Housing, September 2001 to April 2011. Areas of responsibility include providing a safe environment for students in the dormitory, developing a sense of community within the house and providing guidance to students in their personal and academic lives.