

Local Internships and Contact Information

L. Tom Perry Special Collections

Website: <https://sites.lib.byu.edu/sc/policies-services/fellowship-internships/>
Location: Harold B. Lee Library (BYU)
Description: Archival internships
Contact: Maggie Gallup Kopp,
801-422-6276, 1110 HBLL
maggie_kopp@byu.edu

BYU Museum of Art

Website: <http://moa.byu.edu/internships/>
Location: Museum of Art (BYU)
Description: Internships are available in these departments: curatorial, education, registration, design and marketing
Contact: Lynda Palma, Museum Educator,
801-422-8278, lynda_palma@byu.edu

Charles Redd Center Oral History Projects

Website: <https://reddcenter.byu.edu>
Location: Charles Redd Center, 954 SWKT (BYU)
Description: Various projects on Western U.S. History
Contact: Brenden Rensink, Assistant Director 801-422-9181
bwrensink@byu.edu

Center for Family History and Genealogy

Website: <https://cfhg.byu.edu/Pages/Home.aspx>
Location: 1031 JFSB (BYU)
Description: Internships are available for Family History and History majors
Contact: Jill Crandell, Director
801-422-2944, 1031A JFSB
jill_crandell@byu.edu

Provo Pioneer Village (Only open in Spring/Summer)

Website: www.provopioneervillage.org
Location: 500 West 600 North (North Park)
Description: Interns are invited to participate in a variety of areas: exhibit/curatorial, collections management, docent, interpretation and more.
Contact: Stevens C. Nelson
801-375-9299
stevensnelson@comcast.net

American Fork Daughter of Utah Pioneers Museum

Description: Experience could include collections, research, exhibit creation, and docent/interpretation
Location: American Fork
Contact: Karen Adams, Director
801-756-3724
upnadams70@gmail.com

Fort Douglas Military Museum

Website: <http://www.fortdouglas.org/>
Location: Salt Lake City by the University of Utah
Description: Students work on a variety of projects and aspects of museum work. Family History majors can work with military and personnel records and cemetery records
Contact: Beau Burgess, bburgess@fortdouglas.org

Topaz Museum

Website: <http://www.topazmuseum.org/>
Location: Delta, but a lot of research can be done in Provo Description: Research various topics related to Topaz or assist with exhibition planning using museum collection.
Contact: Jane Beckwith, Director
topazmuseum@frontiernet.net

Utah State Archives

Website: www.archives.state.ut.us/
Location: 346 S. Rio Grande St., SLC
Description: Archival and digitization of historical government records including death certificates, land records, legislative bills, court records, and incorporation records.
Contact: Rae Gifford, rgifford@utah.gov

Legacy Tree Genealogists

Website: www.legacytrees.com/apply
Location: 50 W. Broadway, SLC
Description: Professional Genealogists, assist with reports and research
Contact: Katy Barnes, kbarnes@legacytrees.com

The Family History Guide

Website: <http://www.thefhguide.com/>
Location: Sandy, Utah
Description: Training and research guides for family history research
Contact: Robert Ives
ivesandassociates@gmail.com

LDS Family History Library

Website: <https://familysearch.org>
Location: 35 N. West Temple St., SLC
Description: Assist patrons and employees with family history research and records
Contact: Debbie Gurtler
dsgurtler@familysearch.org

Church History Museum

Website: <http://www.lds.org/churchhistory/museum>
Location: 45 North West Temple Street, SLC
Description: Research topics relevant to the museum exhibitions.
Contact: Alan Morrell, Alan.Morrell@ldschurch.org

CHURCH HISTORY LIBRARY INTERNSHIPS (Most internships located at the Church History Library in SLC)

Joseph Smith Papers Project

Website: <http://josephsmithpapers.org/>
Description: Research will involve work in primary and secondary sources for early nineteenth-century America and early Mormonism print and web publications.
Contact: Dr. Mark Ashurst-McGee,
Mark.Ashurst-McGee@ldschurch.org

Historic Sites Division

Description: Research historic sites and landmarks in CHL archives

Contact: Gary Boatright
boatrightgl@ldschurch.org

Women's History Team

Description: Gain research experience in primary and secondary sources related to LDS Women's History

Contact: Dr. Jenny Reeder
jreeder@ldschurch.org

Digital History Internships

Description: 3 projects available: Relief Society
Minutes Database; Topics in Church
History; Global Church Histories

Contact: David Golding
davidgolding@ldschurch.org

