BYU Women’s Studies and the Department of History

Sex on the Frontier: Fertility and America’s 19th Century Empire

APRIL 10, 2015

Lecture at Noon JFSB B092
Discussion on Research Methods, Questions, and Sources at 3 PM JFSB B094

REBECCA EDWARDS, VASSAR

Professor of History on the Eloise Ellery Chair, Edwards is a noted scholar of 19th century American politics and the history of women and gender. Her current research examines the central role of fertility and reproduction in 19th century electoral politics and westward expansion.