On Campus and Around Provo

L. Tom Perry Special Collections
Website: http://lib.byu.edu/sites/sc/policies/services/followup-internships/
Location: Harold B. Lee Library
Description: Archival internships. Applications are available online. Submit application along with a resume and cover letter to the Special Collections Internship Coordinator. Special Collections typically accepts between 3-5 interns per semester.
Contact: Maggie Gallup Kopp, maggie_gallup@byu.edu, 422-6276, 1110 HBLL

Museum of Peoples and Cultures
Website: http://mpc.byu.edu/
Location: 105 Allen Hall (south of campus, near Brick Oven)
Description: Assist in research, collections management, archiving, and exhibition design. Exhibitions and research typically involve Native American, Southwest, or Central/Latin American cultures. Intern spots are limited.
Contact: Kari Nelson, Curator of Education, mpc_programs@byu.edu, 422-0022

BYU Museum of Art
Website: http://moa.byu.edu/internships/
Description: Internships are available in these departments: curatorial, education, registration, design and marketing. Application is online; must also submit a resume, letter of intent, and recent writing sample.
Contact: Lynda Palma, Museum Educator, 422-8278, lynda_palma@byu.edu

Downtown Provo Oral History Project
Website: https://reddcenter.byu.edu/Pages/Home.aspx
Location: Charles Reid Center, 366 SWKT
Description: Students learn how to conduct oral history interviews and how to use oral history in academic and public history projects. The Center is especially interested in preserving stories of experiences that Provo residents and others had in downtown Provo and the tabernacle.
Contact: Jessie Embry, 422-7585, jessie_embry@byu.edu

Center for Family History and Genealogy
Website: https://familyhistory.byu.edu/Pages/Home.aspx
Location: 1031 JFSB
Description: Internships are available for non-family history majors to work on various research projects at the Center.
Contact: Jill Crandell, 422-4335, jill_crandell@byu.edu

Provo Pioneer Village (Only open in Spring/Summer)
Location: 500 West 600 North (North Park)
Description: The Pioneer Village contains 13 structures including two houses, a granary, school, store, woodshop, corncrib, outhouse, a large carriage house, a modern bathroom, and loofing shed.
Duties: Potential projects include: inventories and researching the historic artifacts contained within the village; researching and writing new text labels; restoration of buildings, wagons and artifacts; act as a docent and help expand educational programming; help expand website.
Contact: Stevens C. Nelson, (801) 375-9299, stevenecnelsinon@comcast.net

Crane Family Village
Website: crandallmuseum.org/
Location: 275 East Center Street, Provo
Contact: 801-377-7777, crandall@yahoo.com

Utah and Salt Lake City

Springville Museum of Art
Website: http://sma.nebo.edu/museum_info/volunteer/intern.html
Location: 126 East 400 South, Springville
Description: Applicants may apply for internships within the following Museum departments: Curatorial, Education, or Operations. Applications are online. Must also submit a resume, letter of intent, writing sample, and three references.
Contact: Natalie Peterson, Associate Director, 801-489-2727 Ext. 32, npeterson@smofa.org

Funium
Website: http://www.funium.com/
Location: 15 W. Scenic Point Dr., Ste. 350, Draper
Description: Work with Family Village, an online family history game, produced by Funium. Research different aspects of history as it relates to different time periods and areas. Internships can cover any research interest.
Contact: Les Pardew (VP Creative), lespardew@funium.com, 801-783-3495 Ext. 103

Joseph Smith Papers Project, Church History Library
Website: http://josephsmithpapers.org/
Location: 15 East North Temple Street, SLC
Description: Research will involve work in primary and secondary sources for early nineteenth-century America and early Mormonism.
Contact: Liz Malone, 422-1789, liz_malone@byu.edu

Historic Sites Division, Church History Library
Location: 15 East North Temple Street, SLC
Description: Research historic sites and landmarks in CHL archives. Great for students interested in public history and historic preservation.
Contact: Liz Malone, 422-1789, liz_malone@byu.edu

Church History Museum
Website: http://www.ld.org/churchhistory/museum
Location: 45 North West Temple Street, SLC
Description: Research topics relevant to the museum exhibitions. Great for students interested in public history or museum studies.
Contact: Liz Malone, 422-1789, liz_malone@byu.edu

Topaz Museum
Website: http://www.topazmuseum.org/
Location: Delta; but a lot of research can be done in Provo
Description: Research various topics related to Topaz, the World War II Japanese Internment Camp and its new museum complex.
Contact: Jane Beckwith, topazmuseum@frontiernet.net

For more information, contact:

Liz Malone
History Internship Coordinator
2130D JFSB / (801) 422-1789
liz_malone@byu.edu