1. OBJECTIVES:
This class will examine the history of the World until about AD 1500. The theme for this class will be “Jerusalem and the World” examining Jerusalem’s role as a sacred center for three major world cultures, and of sacred symbols of art, architecture, ritual and writing associated with ancient temple ideologies.

2. INSTRUCTOR:

• Additional course materials and primary readings will be placed on the Web Page
  • blog: http://hamblinhistory201.wordpress.com/
  • web page: http://www.hamblinwj.com/history-201/

4. PROBLEMS. _If you have serious medical problems or other types of difficulties, contact me as soon as possible_. Do not wait to try to resolve problems until the end of the semester when it is too late to do anything about them. Problems identified early and dealt with swiftly can be solved.
5. Grading:
Tests will be given at the Testing Center and may include any type of question. Grades will be based on five factors which total 1000 points:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10 Quizzes (out of 13), drop lowest three</td>
<td>50 pts (of 65 points)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mid-Term Exam</td>
<td>100 pts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Paper</td>
<td>100 pts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final Exam</td>
<td>100 pts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grand total</td>
<td>350 pts</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The percentage of the curve is as follows: A 93-100; A- 90-92; B+ 87-89; B 83-86; B- 80-82; C+ 77-79; C 73-76; C- 70-72; D+ 67-69; D 63-66; D- 60-62; E 59 or lower

Note on “Make-up” Quizzes and Tests:
- There will be regular pop quizzes on the reading assignments for that day. They will often be given at 10am sharp. If you don’t come to class, or are late for the quiz, there are no make-up quizzes! Instead, your lowest three grades (15 points) on the quizzes will be dropped. Thereafter, you take the losses. The dropping of the lowest three quizzes is designed to accommodate legitimate excuses, not so you can fool around.
- If you know in advance you will miss the day of a test, you must take the test before the scheduled test day. Make-up tests after the exam date will be essay exams because we discuss the tests in class. You may not take the final early except for medical or similar emergency. (The claim that your mom scheduled your airline ticket on the wrong day, or that you are getting married on the day of the final are not medical excuses.) Tests may include all types of questions: T/F, multiple choice, matching, fill in blank, short answer, essays, etc. There is no extra credit.
- There are no exceptions to these rules, so don’t ask.

6. Courtesy: Whispering, flirting, snoring, or other forms of disturbance will not be tolerated. Students causing any disturbance (as judged by the professor or teaching assistants) will receive a warning and be docked 5 points. If problems persist, they may be expelled from class. In a class this size it is very important to be considerate of your neighbors who are actually trying to listen.

7. Cheating: Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing on their tests, papers, or quizzes will fail the course and be sent to the Honor Code office! No exceptions! If you repent and confess before you are caught, mercy may be obtainable. For more information, see:
TERM PAPER: 100 points (28%) of your grade will be based on a term paper.

8.1 Select a book/books of interest related to the course. It must be at least 250 pages long. The book can be on any topic from any civilization before 1500 AD. (The topic of the book must be before 1500; the book may be published after 1500.) Modern historical fiction is not acceptable; fiction by ancient or medieval authors is acceptable.

8.2 You cannot do your book report on a book you have already read or which you are reading for another class. Picture books give ½ page count.

8.3 All parts of this assignment must be typed, double spaced, one inch margins. Hand written submissions will be returned ungraded.

8.4 Tues. 4 Sept., (5 pts): Book Review Title Due. Write a one-paragraph summary of your proposed book, including the full bibliographic reference. Your selection MUST be authorized by me in writing. If I do not authorize the book you will get no credit. If you decide to change book titles, you must get the new title approved by me.

   Examples of full bibliographic format:

8.5 Thurs. 1 Nov., (30 pts): Reading Form Due. Part of the assignment is to carefully read the book. You will be graded on whether you actually read the book. I will provide a form to be filled out.

8.6 Thurs. 15 Nov., (65 pts): Book Review Due. Write a three to four-page book report. (Points will be deducted for papers that are shorter or longer.) About 2/3 of the report will summarize the book; 1/3 should be an analytical response to the book. Your goal is to prove to me that you have read and understood the book. Details to follow.

8.7 Any part of the paper handed in late will be docked 10% for the first period, 20% for the second. The paper will not be accepted if it is more than two weeks late.

8.8 Do not plagiarize (copy from sources without attribution)! Plagiarism is cheating, and can lead to failure of the course (see #7 above). If you do not understand plagiarism, ask.
