The London Internship
Spring, Summer 2015

Intern in the financial and cultural capital of the world, London. Enjoy Spring or Summer Term in Great Britain while you are building your resume, getting experience, networking, and learning more about the world. Depending on your education, experience, and background, our placement coordinators will be able to place you in an internship based on your field of interest. Since an internship is a real-world experience, internship placement is determined by company needs. A wide variety of internship fields are available, including advertising, agriculture, art, business, communications, computer science, information technology, culinary arts, design, drama, theatre, fashion, finance, banking, graphic design, healthcare, hotels, hospitality, tourism, international studies, journalism, law, marketing, psychology, and more.

 Dates
Spring Term (seven weeks, May 3-June 20, 2015)
Summer Term (seven weeks, June 21-Aug 8)

 Courses
You are required to register for six credit hours per term.
Credits should include internship credit from your academic department.

 Housing
You will board in a single room within a British household and share a bathroom with other boarders or members of the household. Meals will not be provided; however, you will have access to a kitchen. You are encouraged to view the housing as an opportunity for cultural learning and must practice maturity, flexibility, and independence.

 Cost
$4,900-$5,400
Includes LDS, undergraduate tuition for six credits (increased cost for grads and non-LDS), accommodations, visa, internship placement fee, international health insurance coverage. Does not include airfare, meals, transportation, personal expenses, or passport fee.
BEFORE YOU GO

Preparation
Accepted students are required to participate in a preparation course (IAS 201R 1 credit hour). This second-block evening course will be held during Winter Semester 2015 on Wednesday evenings from 5:00-7:00 PM.

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online for the program and take the preparation course. Married couples will be responsible for finding their own housing.

Students will be responsible for obtaining a BUNAC Tier-5 visa on their own.

Funding Sources
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to BYU International programs. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/student/scholarships).

Program Adjustments
ISP reserves the right to cancel this program, revise its offerings, or make any adjustments to the preliminary cost estimates due to conditions beyond its control.

Application Process
Spring Deadline: Feb. 1, 2015
Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp/online/app/home.php.
The application requires a $35 fee. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.
